

What happened?

Mark Kirk made a speech in Congress saying the Bush budget was not fiscally responsible. A few days later he voted for that budget.

Mark Kirk said he had personally seen the proof that Saddam Hussein had weapons of mass destruction. What weapons?

Mark Kirk said he would help senior citizens get prescription drugs. Then he voted for the President's bill that helps drug companies but not seniors.

Mark Kirk said he was in favor of gun safety legislation. But he voted to exempt gun manufacturers and dealers from product safety laws and he let the Assault Weapon Ban expire.

Mark Kirk said he was a friend of minorities. The NAACP looked at his voting record and gave him a grade of "F."

Mark Kirk said he was in favor of a woman's right to choose. He skipped the crucial vote on late term abortions.

Mark Kirk says he is pro-environment. But he has remained silent as the Bush administration has methodically undercut enforcement by the Environmental Protection Agency with devastating effects.

Mark Kirk said he supports human rights. But he acquiesced in the torture of foreign prisoners.

Mark Kirk says he is independent. Actually, he voted 87% of the time with the Bush administration.

The state's premier independent political organization, the Independent Voters of Illinois/Independent Precinct Organization, endorses his opponent, Lee Goodman.

Your neighbors are supporting Lee Goodman for U.S. Congress because Lee wants to expand Medicare to provide everyone with affordable health care and prescription drugs. He wants to stop the war so your children and grandchildren will not be drafted to fight in Iraq. He is a courageous, dedicated, and trustworthy advocate for the environment, choice, and human rights.
